

Course Code and Title	AIT105- ATATURK'S PRINCIPLES AND HISTORY OF TURKISH REVOLUTION
Course Period	1st Grade/ Fall Semester
Course Hours (Theoretical/ Application)	28/0
ECTS of the Course	2
Course Language	Turkish
CourseType	Imperative
Learning and Learning of the Course	Lecture (Presentation), Question-Answer (Discussion, Critique)
Course Evaluation Techniques	1. Written Exam 2. Homework
Course Instructor(s)	Meryem BULCA
Course Objectives	It is an understanding of Atatürk's principles and reforms, nationalism, and efforts for world peace and modernization of Turkey.
Learning Outcome of the Course	1. To be able to understand and evaluate the transition process from Empire to National State, 2. To be able to draw lessons by understanding the basics of the national struggle process, 3. To be able to comprehend information about Social Policy, Political Science and International Relations, 4. To be able to synthesize national values and universal values.
Course Outline	1. An overview of the Ottoman Empire and the reasons for the collapse of the Ottoman Empire, Reform movements and their consequences. 2. Intellectual movements aimed at saving the Ottoman Empire. 3. The Oriental Question 4. Wars that triggered the collapse of the Ottoman Empire (93 War, Tripolitanian War, Balkan Wars) 5. The general situation of the world before World War I and the Ottoman Empire 6. The outbreak of World War I, the entry of the Ottoman Empire into the war and the fronts on which it fought. 7. Intellectual currents affecting the world in the 20th century, the impact of these movements on minorities and the Armenian Question 8. The Armistice of Mudros, Important provisions and projects to share the Ottoman Empire, occupations, the attitude of the society, the Istanbul government and the minorities in the face of occupations, Societies, Activities and General characteristics. 9. Mustafa Kemal's arrival in Samsun, the beginning of the national struggle, Circulars and Congresses. 10. Relations between the Representative Committee and the Istanbul government, the opening of the Parliament, the National Pact, the occupation of Istanbul, the opening of the Grand National Assembly and the management of the National Struggle, Rebellions and measures. 11. National Struggle on the Eastern and Southern Fronts 12. Battles of the Western Front 13. Political activities and treaties during the National Struggle Period, Mudanya negotiations and the Abolition of the Sultanate. 14. Political activities and treaties during the National Struggle Period, Mudanya negotiations and the Abolition of the Sultanate.
Resources	1. Mustafa Kemal, Nutuk, Ankara 1997. 2. Commission, Republic of Turkey 1-2 Atatürk Research Center Publication 3. Commission, Atatürk's Principles and History of Turkish Revolution I /1, I/2, II, YÖK Publication 4. Textbooks of all universities, Turkish Historical Society Publications, Atatürk Research Center Publications. 5. Memoirs and similar sources. 6. Other resources: Maps, Documentaries, Films, CDs and similar documents

Weeks	Weekly Course Topics
1st Week	An overview of the Ottoman Empire and the reasons for the collapse of the Ottoman Empire, Reform movements and their consequences.
2nd Week	Intellectual movements aimed at saving the Ottoman Empire. The Oriental Question
3rd Week	Wars that triggered the collapse of the Ottoman Empire (93 War, Tripolitanian War, Balkan Wars)
4th Week	The general situation of the world before World War I and the Ottoman Empire
5th Week	The outbreak of World War I, the entry of the Ottoman Empire into the war and the fronts on which it fought.
6th Week	Intellectual currents affecting the world in the 20th century, the impact of these movements on minorities and the Armenian Question
7th Week	Mudros Armistice, Important provisions and projects to share the Ottoman Empire, Occupations, Occupations of the society, Istanbul attitude of the government and minorities, Societies, Activities and General characteristics.
8th Week	Midterm Exam
9th Week	Mustafa Kemal's arrival in Samsun, the beginning of the national struggle, Circulars and Congresses.
10th Week	Relations between the Representation Committee and the Istanbul government, the opening of the Parliament, the National Pact, the occupation of Istanbul, The opening of the Grand National Assembly and the management of the National Struggle, Rebellions and measures.
11th Week	National Struggle on the Eastern and Southern Fronts
12th Week	Battles of the Western Front
13th Week	Battles of the Western Front
14th Week	Political activities and treaties during the National Struggle Period, Mudanya negotiations and the Abolition of the Sultanate.
15th Week	Final Exam

Evaluation System
Semester Studies	Number	Total Contribution (%)
Continuation	0	0
Laboratory	0	0
Application	0	0
Fieldwork	0	0
Course-Specific Internship (If Available)	0	0
Assignments	0	0
Presentation	0	0
Projects	0	0
Seminar	0	0
Midterm Exam	1	50
Finale	1	50
	Sum	100
Contribution of Semester Studies to Success Grade	0	0
Contribution of Final Studies to Success Grade	0	0
	Sum	0

Explanation: While calculating the contribution rates of the evaluation system, SANKO University Associate Degree and Undergraduate Education and the Examination Regulation and the Faculty of Medicine Education and Measurement and Evaluation Directive are valid.

Student Workload Table
Events	Number (weeks)	Duration (class hours)	Sum
Course Duration (Including Exam Week)	14	2	28
Laboratory	0	0	0
Application	0	0	0
Course-Specific Internship (If Available)	0	0	0
Fieldwork	0	0	0
Out-of-Class Study Time (Freelancing/ Group Study/ Pre-Study/ Reinforcement)	14	1	14
Presentation/Seminar Preparation	0	0	0
Project	0	0	0
Assignments	0	0	0
Midterm Exam	1	3	3
Final Exams	1	5	5
Total Workload	30	11	50

Associating the learning outcomes of the course with the program competencies
Program Qualifications	1	2	3	4	5
1. The basic structure, development and normal functioning of the human body molecules, cells, tissues, It explains at the organ and system level.	X
2. Questioning the abnormal structuring and functioning of the human body, qualified scientific Explains with research-based information, evaluates the causes of diseases, taking into account the interaction with the individual and his environment.	X
3. Clinical decision-making and management processes of diseases and applications of evidence-based medicine evaluates under the guidance of.	X
4. Define the concepts of health and disease in individual and social contexts, health seeking and health protection behaviors, national health service delivery and administrative processes Describes.	X
5. Know the research processes that form the basis of medical knowledge, follow the developments in this field Has a level of foreign language knowledge.	X
6. Takes medical history from the applicant/patient and their relatives.	X
7. Performs physical examination of individuals, evaluates diagnostic tests, diagnosis and treatment It manages its processes by using appropriate process steps.	X
8. Applies medical interventions for diagnosis, treatment or prevention of individuals.	X
9. Medical and administrative data on health and disease obtained from individuals and society organizes and keeps records of context.	X
10. For the protection and development of health in individual and social dimensions Plans and implements applications.	X
11. Plans and implements a scientific research and evaluates its results.	X
12. Scientific and technological developments for professional and social changes It shows lifelong learning behavior by making use of it.	X
13. Physician within the framework of professional values, ethical principles and legal regulations, regardless of language, religion, race, gender, social and cultural discrimination in the individual and society he serves. fulfills its responsibilities as.	X
14. Protection and development of health in individual and social dimensions, diseases Performs teamwork with colleagues and other healthcare professionals in the management processes.	X
15. Protection and development of the health of the individual and society and the society of health care It strives to be realized for the benefit of the individuals who make it up.	X
Description: Level of qualification:
1. Miscarriage
2. Low/medium
3. Middle
4. High
5. That's great					